News you can use

Services outside the U.S.

When you send a message or use data, the transaction time is captured in your local U.S. time. When you make or receive a call while outside the U.S., the transaction time appears on your bill in the time zone of the country you visited. For the calculation of your 24 hour International Day Pass, calls will also be converted to your local U.S. time zone.

Notice of updated terms

Effective 12/1/22, we have updated the AT&T Consumer Service Agreement, which you can review at att.com/ConsumerServiceAgreement. Among the updates are new ways to resolve individual disputes informally and new procedures for certain coordinated arbitrations. By continuing to use our services, you accept and agree to be bound by the updates. If you do not agree, see att.com/CSA for details, options, and deadlines.

Affordable Connectivity Program

The Affordable Connectivity Program (ACP) is a federal government program operated by the Federal Communications Commission that allows qualified households to lower internet or wireless costs by $30/mo. (up to $75/mo. if you reside on eligible tribal lands). You may qualify if your household is at or below 200% of the Federal Poverty Guidelines, you qualify for the Lifeline program, or anyone in your household participates in one of the federal programs listed at affordableconnectivity.gov/do-i-qualify. The benefit is not transferable and is limited to one monthly benefit per household. If the program ends, you transfer your benefit to another service provider, or you are no longer eligible for the program, regular plan rates, terms, and conditions will apply. See affordableconnectivity.gov to apply or for more details. Once approved, you may enroll with AT&T at att.com/acp.

Help protect yourself from fraud

Be cautious of unrequested calls, texts or emails asking for your personal, account or credit card information. If you are not expecting a call from an AT&T representative, do not give any personal or account identifying information; this includes giving your account passcode or password to a caller claiming to be from AT&T. If you receive an unrequested email or text, do not reply. Never use the links in questionable emails or texts to determine if they are valid. Fraudsters can create fake email headers and realistic forgeries of websites; so the sender may not be real. Do not fill out forms via email or text; instead, go directly to the company's website. You can find additional helpful tips and resources at about.att.com/pages/cyberaware/resources

Electronic check conversion

Paying by check authorizes AT&T to use the information from your check to make a one-time electronic fund transfer from your account. Funds may be withdrawn from your account as soon as your payment is received. If we cannot process the transaction electronically, you authorize AT&T to present an image copy of your check for payment. Your original check will be destroyed once processed. If your check is returned unpaid you agree to pay such fees as identified in the terms and conditions of your agreement, up to $30. Returned checks may be presented electronically.

Company fees & surcharges

AT&T imposes additional charges on a per line basis, including federal and state universal service charges, an Administrative Fee (to defray certain expenses including charges AT&T or its agents pay to interconnect with other carriers to deliver calls from AT&T customers to their customers, and charges associated with cell site rents and maintenance), and a Regulatory Cost Recovery Charge (to recover costs of compliance with certain government imposed regulatory requirements, including Wireless Number Portability and Number Pooling, and E911). These fees are not taxes or charges that the government requires AT&T to collect from its customers. See att.com/mobilityfees for details.

Wireless DirectBill charges

Detail of DirectBill charges can be viewed at att.com/db. The direct billing option offers you the ability to purchase content, goods and features such as apps, games, donations, and services from AT&T and other companies by applying charges to your wireless account.

911 calling with TTY and Real-Time Text

Due to technical limitations, Wi-Fi Calling and NumberSync cannot be used with TTY devices and cannot support 911 calls over TTY devices. Persons with communications disabilities can use Real-Time Text (www.att.com/RTT) as an alternative to TTY. 911 services can be reached by either: (1) calling 911 using Real-Time Text or (2) calling 911 directly using a TTY over the cellular network or from a landline telephone, or (3) sending a text message to 911 directly (in areas where text-to-911 is available) from a wireless device, or (4) using relay services to place a TTY or captioned telephone service (CTS) call from a wireless phone over the cellular network or from a landline telephone, or (5) using relay services to place a IP Relay or IP CTS call over a cellular data or other IP network.
